GENERAL DESCRIPTION

The tool "Defining Personal Management Style" helps the manager and / or a business owner to identify his/her personal management style. It does not refer to organizational management issues but to the type, style of management on a personal level.

Useful information for completing the questionnaire:

1. There are no correct or wrong answers. You cannot succeed or fail this test.
2. Respond only with a YES or NO.
3. This is not a test of ability as a director. It is an effort to discover your personal style of management
4. Do not try to "guess" the answer. There are no trick questions.
5. Do not ask yourself what the "best" answer can be. Just give the answer that fits your type and personality
6. Answer according to your actual data and not how you would like to be
7. The question may not fit with your current employment. Even so, it should be answered. Ask yourself: "If this fit with my work, what would my answer be?"
